

UGANDA CENTER OF ITI IN REVIEW JULY 2022 - APRIL 2024

Uganda's theatrical scene is experiencing vibrant growth as artists and performers explore a diverse range of expressions, blending traditional and modern forms. This cross-generational fusion, drawing from Uganda's culture and global influences, fosters artistic diversity, cultural exchange, and communal reflection. The expansion of performance venues to include community centers, universities, and private spaces reflects this dynamic evolution.

Below is a summary of what has been done over the two years in photos highlighting local and international engagements by Uganda Center of ITI.

MAKERERE UNIVERSITY AT 100 ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS 2ND SEPTEMBER, 2022/ KAMPALA, UGANDA

Uganda Center for ITI recognized for its contribution of creating an annual World Theatre Day week of theatre activities for Students of the Department of Performing Arts and Film.

Photo Credit: Dr. Jessica A. Kaahwa

2nd Edition, EMERGING ART SCENES IN AFRICA CONFERENCE

25th-30th SEPTEMBER, 2022/ ACCRA, GHANA

Uganda Center for ITI as participant delegate at the Emerging Art Scenes in Africa. Our Center has continued to actively engage with other centers through online and onsite conferences.

On the left, Global ITI Leaders at conference. Photo Credit: @Tognidaho.

36th ITI WORLD CONGRESS 20TH-25TH FEBRUARY, 2023/ FUJAIRAH, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

Uganda Center for ITI led by Dr. Jessica Atwooki Kaahwa accompanied by Teresa Eyring together with cooperating members from South Africa, Ghana and U.A.E. in a face-to-face meeting with their counterparts at the Arab Theatre Institute (ATI) in Sharjah, U.A.E.

Photo Credit: Dr. Jessica A. Kaahwa

CHARLES MULEKWA'S MAN TO MAN: A CASE FOR TORTURE VICTIMS 28TH JULY -20TH AUGUST,2023/KAMPALA, UGANDA

Man to Man produced by Tebere Arts Foundation and directed by Uganda Center of ITI's Amelia M. Kyaka.

On the left, Ambassador Jan Sadek, Head of the EU Delegation to Uganda and his family together with members of the cast.

Photo Credit: Amelia M. Kyaka

2nd Edition, MARIAM NDAGIRE THEATRE AND PERFORMING ARTS FESTIVAL 20th-24th NOVEMBER, 2023 / KAMPALA, UGANDA

Amelia M. Kyaka 3rd from left represented Uganda Center for ITI, inspiring participants about their impact on both local and global theatre.

Photo Credit: Mariam Ndagire, Bat Valley Theatre

163rd ITI EC ONSITE MEETING, 28TH NOVEMBER – 5TH DECEMBER, 2023 / XICHANG, CHINA

Uganda Center for ITI was represented by Dr. Jessica Atwooki Kaahwa at 163rd ITI EC on Site Meeting held in Xichang, China; where also participated in the Round Table Discussion organized by Daliang Shan Theatre Festival 28th November -5th December, 2023.

WORLD THEATRE DAY 2024 CELEBRATION 27TH – 29TH MARCH 2024/ KAMPALA, UGANDA

Uganda Center for ITI together with The Uganda National Cultural Center led discussions in media and symposia on the role of theatre in national development.

On the left, advert by a big National Television bringing stakeholders in the theatre space to discuss theatre and development.